E. J. Hollingsworth
to
E. V. Hearte

Be it remembered, that whereas, that a Deed of conveyance was made and entered into on the Seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and Sixty between Elija J. Hollingsworth of the City of Macon, in the County of Bibb, State of Georgia of the first part and Henry V. Hearte of the town of Milton in the County of Santa Rosa, State of Florida of the second part, that the said Deed wrongly described the land sold, only by misdescribing the Section in which said Lands was located, and which said misdescription was a mere clerical error, and which has not been until now, brought to the notice of the party of the first part, but that the party of the second part, was then let into possession of the premises and which he has held without interruption to the present time, and which misdescribing and clerical error the said party of the first part, now corrects, and to reform the said Deed, in that respect the said premises, being described, in said Deed thus, Piece of Land or Lot, situate lying and being in the town of Milton, aforesaid, known and designated on a plat or plan of a town which Jackson Morton, laid off, on the South West quarter of the South West Quarter, of Section number (33) thirty two, in township two North of Range twenty East West in the Tallahassee District of Land of the said United States as the second Lot, on the West Side of the main Street containing one square acre And the said party of the first part, hereby and by these presents doth reform the said Deed and correct, the said misdescribing and error, in the section and tenders the following as the true description, of the premises which she then conveyed, to the said party of the second part, and into which she then put him, into the possession of and which he has ever since enjoyed, the peaceable, & uninterrupted possession, of until the present, Namely; the following described piece of Land, or Lot, situate lying and being in the town of Milton aforesaid, known and designated on a plat, or plan of a town which Jackson Morton laid off, on the, South West quarter of the South West quarter of Section number (34) thirty four, in township two North of Range, twenty East West, in the Tallahassee District of Lands, of the said United States as the second Lot, on the West side of the main Street, containing one Square acre, and hereby acknowledge and consent that wrote Section number (33) thirty two, is written in said Deed, that the (33) thirty two be stricken out and that (34) thirty four, be inserted in the place and stead thereof the said premises being better known, as the Hollingsworth storehouse & Lot, in Pueblo town and in the Corporation of the town of Milton aforesaid, and that which the said party of the first part did convey, to the said party of the second part, then went, into the possession of and has been in the uninterrupted possession of ever since even to the present

In witness whereof the said party of the first part hath hereunto set her hand and affixed her Seal this 20th day of April A D 1876.
