There is a possibility that other persons may be interred in this family cemetery and are not known.

The cemetery is on a hill located behind the barn. To gain access one must walk through a field. All of the stones in this cemetery are made of field stone some are legible and others are really weathered and unable to read.

Thelma Maust-Durst is the 2nd great-granddaughter of Jacob Gnaegi

Patsy Hardesty-Sutton is the 3rd great-granddaughter of Jacob Gnaegi

MILLER (Abraham?) Cemetery [SM30]

This cemetery name is given in the Internet on-line cemetery listings. It does not exist in the W.P.A. and Della Reagan Fischer lists. It appears to be an AKA name for [SM33] Miller (Henry W. Saylor) Burial ground.

MILLER BURIAL GROUND

SM 31

SUMMIT TWP.

2-3-4 | Old abandoned burial ground on the farm now owned by William Bowman, in a field at the western side of Huntsrick hill, just below the old trolley right-of-way, and is now cultivated over. Said to contain the body of one of Daniel Gnageys children, and several other bodies now forgotten, also the bodies of Mrs. Hostetler, Peter Miller and wife and Mrs. Samuel R. Fike, which were removed to Union Cemetery in Meyersdale, Pa. A number of years ago. Situated about eight or ten rods south of the Samuel J. Miller school house.

5 Gustaf Reifer, a young man who was killed while opening a coal mine in the neighborhood and whose body was never removed, when the casket was closed the mother wrapped on the lid and bid her son a last farewell, just before it was lowered into the grave. This was one of the first mine accidents in the Meyersdale region from Wm. S. Miller.
